W. H. M'HENRY

M. D. & W. H. M'HENRY, ATTORNEYS AND LAND AGENTS, DES MOINES, IOWA,

PROPOSE to practice in the various Courts of Polk county, and in the Supreme Court of Iowa, and the United States District Court.

They have also established a General Agency for the transaction of all manner of business connected with Land Titles.

Land Titles.

They will enter Lands, investigate Titles, buy and sell Lands, and invest money on the best terms and on the best securities.

They will enter Lands in Kansas and Nebraska Territories, if an amount sufficient to justify a visit to that country is offered.

The Senior partner having been engaged extensively in the business of the law in the Courts of Kentucky for tories, it an amount sometime to justify a visit to that country is offered.

The Senior partner having been engaged extensively in the business of the law in the Courts of Kentucky for nearly thirty years, and the Junior having been engaged in the Land Business in Iowa for eight years past, during which time he has made actual survey of a large portion of Polk and adjoining counties, they feel confident they will be able to render a satisfactory account of all business entrusted to them

They will enter Land with Land Warrants or Money, upon actual inspection of the premises, and will buy and sell Lands on Commission, upon a careful investigation of Titles. Persons wishing to settle in the State can find desirable farms and city property for sale, by calling on them at their office in Sherman's Building, corner of Third street and Court Avenue, Des Moines, Iowa.

Dec. 21, 1857. This subject is now being agitated in the State of Ohio, and the following article is cut from the Ohio Farmer, an excellent weekly paper published at Cleveland. In the last number the Ohio editor kindly offers the use of his columns to the Kentucky State Agricultural Society. The proposed tax is a matter of much interest in Kentucky also, and it is hoped at least, that provision will be made to ascertain the number of dogs in the State, and also the number of sheep killed by them annually. Dec. 29, 1857. ved the The annexed petition is in course of circula tion at present, and we cannot too heartily en tion at present, and we cannot too heartily en-dorse its prayer. No one who keeps a valuable dog will be unwilling to pay, and the useless good for killing sheep curs, had better be dis-pensed with. Let all sign this petition, and if they have no printed copy, write out one, and see that it is presented immediately. It is from agriculture that our State derives her wealth, and The

To the Honorable, the General Assembly of the in th State of Ohio:—The undersigned, the citizens of the State, believing that the interests of the po le demand a more extended knowledge of the art of Agriculture; and believing that this know-ledge can only be obtained by a thorough and systematic course of instruction in the various branches of the art. Your petitioners would therefore pray you Honorable Body, to take into consideration the following named facts, and after due consideration, grant to your petitioners their earnest From the basis of the last census, it may be safely calculated, that there are at the present time, owned in the State of Ohio, about 5,000, 000 sheep; and from the reliable statistics gathered from various sources, it has been ascertained that there are owned and harbored in the State, at the present time, about 200,000 dogs, that these animals kill and destroy annually bout 40,000 head of sheep, valued at $80,000. Now your petitioners pray that for the purpos protecting the wool-growing interests of the State, and for the promotion of Agricultural Ed cation, the tax of fifty cents may be annually evied upon every animal of the dog kind owner and harbored in the State of Ohio; and the fund thus created may be appropriated to the support of Free Agricultural Education throughout the

IF The following is Gen. Cass' reply to Gov.

Walker's letter of resignation: Secretary Cass' Reply to Gov. Walker. STATE DEPARTMENT, Dec. 18, 1857. -On Wednesday last I received your comunication of the 15th instant, tendering your signation as Governor of Kansas. This resignation ation is accompanied by a long argument on the ffairs of the Territory generally, to which you re well aware it would be impossible for this Department to reply. If every officer of the Government who feels himself constrained to refuse edience to the instructions of the President all pursue this unusual course and thus place on he files of the appropriate department a criticism on the policy of the Administration, no person nows better than yourself to what consequences is might lead. He must either cause the charand arguments against the President, to be filed among the public archives of the country, without contradiction or reply; or it must spend the ime which ought to be devoted to the public ser ce in controversies with subordinate officers who may disapprove of the President's policy.— Whilst duty, therefore, forbids me to enter into controversial discussion with you on the various opics embraced by your argument, it is proper that I should make a remark upon a single point. You state that the President has changed his pol cy in regard to Kansas, and why this allegation Simply because the Convention of Kansas have in the exercise of the rights belonging to them, decided, that they would not submit the whole Constitution to the people, although they had submitted the all important and dangerous ques-tion of slavery, which threatened to convulse the Union, and was alone prominent in the minds of the people throughout every State. He had not treated the submission of this momentous ques-tion as a mere nullity. Under these circumstances it was his imperative duty, and this in strict conformity with previous instructions, to take care that a fair election be held on this vital question, and thus give peace to the Union. Had he acted in any other manner, merely because he preferred the submission of the Constitution original nally to the people, his responsibility would have been of the gravest character. He never intend-ed or expressed the opinion that the convention were bound to submit any portion of the Consti-tution to the people, except the question of slavery, much less that that portion would be invalid without such submission. Had he entertained such an opinion, this would have been in opposi tion to the numerous precedents which have oc-curred since the adoption of the Federal Constitution by the different States. The question of slavery was the all-absorbing question, and you were sent to Kansas, with the full confidence of the President, to carry out the principles of the Kansas Nebraska act. With the question as to whether Kansas was to be a free or slave State, you were not to interfere. You were to secure you were not to interfere. to the people of Kansas a free and fair election to decide the question for themselves. The President was therefore happy to learn from your dis-patches to this department of July 15th last, that in all your speeches you had refrained from exressing any opinion as to whether it should be a slave or free State. am instructed to inform you that your resig nation of the office of Governor of Kansas has been accepted. I found written copies of the above highly intelligible and vindictive proclamation stuck up on every blacksmith shop, doggery and store door in the Frog Mountain range. Its blood thirsty, vindictive spirit, its style, and, above all, its chirography, interested me to the extent of stealing one from a tree for preservation.

In a few days I found Sut in a good crowd in front of Capehart's small doggery, and, as he proved to be about "in tune," I read it to him.—

Mr. Belknap was at Green river when the United States trains of provisions, &c., were burned by the Mormons. A very small force of Mormons was concerned in the operation—twen. Hell Sarpints wud sarve em if they didn't repentthen sarphine with a true that the trails roun than necks, poke than tungs inter than eyes and blow inter than years; and ef it war an oman, how they'd quile in her bussum, and try to crawl down under her frock-string. An he hed em hot, hollering, an scared; the fac is, the thing was a workin powerful. Now I'd kotch five big grey pot bellied lizzards, and held em in a little narpot befined hzzards, and need em in a five har-rer bag what I made a purpos—thar tails all at the bottom, an packed as tite as a bundil ove sticks. So while he wur a rarin onto his tip toes, onbenowns tu any body, I ontion my poke and put the mouth up under his britches leg an gin the tails a sqees an a shake, when they all tuk up his bar leg, making ove a nise sorter liky squirrills a climbin a shell bark hicory. He stopped preachin and looked fur a moment like an old sow dus when she hears you whistle for the dogs. I give a big groan, an hilt my hed atween my knees.— Then he commenced a slapin ove his self whar ye cut the steak outen a beef, then he'd fetch a ruff rub whar a hosses tail sprouts, then ne'd stomp, then run his han in tween his waisbur un his shut, an then down an roun mitily with it then he spred his big legs and give his back a good shakin sort ove rub agin the pulpit sorte like a hog scraches agin a stump; a leaning tr his work powerful, and squirmin ginerally zi he'd jist cum outen a deg bed, ur hed slep on a pisant trail. About this time wun ove my liz ards (scared and hurt, I spose, by all this rubin and scratchin and slappin) poked his hed out atween the passon's shut collar an his old brown neck, tuck a peep at the sircumstances, and dodge back agin. Old Bullin's speech now cum tu him; his eyes sticken out like two buckeyes flung gin a mud wall, an his voice trimblin; "Bretherin, take keer ove yoursefs, the Hell Sar pints hev got me!" Sum ove the wimmen fotch painter yell, an a ramrod legged doctur what ot near me, allowed it wur a clar case ove Deliwur tremendjus afore it wur dun with. Off wen claw hammer coat, an he flung hit ahind him nur I got outen my pasted wun, an he flung hit up in the air like he didn't care a durn if hit kept n up furever, but hit lodged inter a black jack I seed wun ove my lizzards a racin about over the big old dirty lookin shut, skared like the devil Then he gin a sorter shake an a twist, an he cun outen his britches, an he tuck em by the bottom ove the legs an swung em roun his hed a few times an then fotch em down cherallup over the front ove the pulpit. You cud've hearn the smash a quarter ove a mile! Nigh onto abou fifteen shortened biskit, a briled chickin with hits legs crossed, a big dubil bladed nife, a slab of serbacker, a pipe, sum copper ore speciments, a neap ove broken glass, a cork, a sprinkil ove whisky, a aqut an three ove my lizzards flew pe miskusly all over that ar meetin ground, oute the upper ind ove them big flax britches. Jesse E. Hoskins, Esq.,

You will greatly oblige many of your friends by consenting to become a candidate for County Judge of Woodford county. Dec. 29, 1857. MANY VOTERS.

We have received a copy of the Shelby News in which we find the subjoined article mark

We notice that a correspondent of one of ou Louisville exchanges states, that the Governo had signed the joint resolution fixing the 5th prox imo for the election of United States Senator. We may be in error, but we cannot perceive wh the resolution was presented to the Governor his approval, or what induced him to sign it. can not conceive that the Executive had anythin to do in the matter. It was simply, only an agre ment between the two houses after consultation as to the time they would execute a joint act;-an act in which the Executive had no part or lot -which is beyond his official interference and control. The idea, that the Executive shall ap prive of that agreement of the two houses as t the day they will elect officers, involves his righ to veto such resolution, and, under certain circum stances, thereby prevent the election of necessar officers to carry on the Government. In thi case of United States Senator, the Constitution of the United States expressly says the Legisla ture shall appoint the time and manner of the election, and elect the Senator, But, give the Governor the privilege of approving or vetoing the resolution fixing the time, and it is readil perceived that an election might be easily avoid ed at the proper time, and the right of appoint ment thus devolve upon the Executive himself

We presume the subject referred to in the above article has never been discussed, and, with all respect for our esteemed cotemporary of the News, we hardly think it admits of much discus sion. An examination of the Constitution of Kentucky will, we think, set the matter at rest at once. The 23rd section of third article of the Constitution reads as follows:

"Every order, resolution, or vote, in which the concurrence of both houses may be necessary, ex cept on a question of adjournment, shall be pre sented to the Governor, and before it shall take effect, be approved by him; or being disapproved shall be re-passed by a majority of all the mem bers elected to both houses, according to the rules and limitations prescribed in case of a

The only question then, is, whether or not is requires the concurrence of both Houses before the Legislature can go into the election of United States Senator. We take the position that it does; and, if we are right, the Constitution ex plicitly demands that such a joint resolution shall receive the approval of the Governor before go ing into effect. The Constitution is explicit upon this point, and we do not think there is any room for complaint against the Legislature for sub mitting their resolution fixing the 5th of Januar as the day for the election of United States Senator, to the Governor for his approval. Prece dent has established such a custom and the Con stitution directs it.

I Dick Bolling's opponents for the nomina tion for the Clerkship of the Court of Appeals are endeavoring to make him out an Emancipation ist. Now, if the Democratic party was not in supposed majority, and Dick had the nomination would not those very same Democrats bring the very same accusation against the anti-Democratic candidate, whoever he might be? We don't care a pinch of snuff who gets the nomination, and if the Democrats do not choose to nominate Dick we won't complain. But it really amuses us to see them bring the same old stale, worn out. and rotten charges against a member of their own party which they have preferred against their political opponents.

In order to sustain Dick, his friends have thought it necessary to give him a certificate of good character, and accordingly the people have been informed by sundry resolutions from the Democrats of his county, that he is a gentleman of high moral standing. They have also published a list of the persons for whom he has voted as another recommendation of him for the Clerk ship. If his votes should be taken into consid eration either one way or the other, they should in our opinion, defeat him, as they have been al most uniformly for Democrats. It is a very noticeable fact that the qualifications of the different Democratic candidates to discharge the duties of the office have not yet been discussed by the anonymous correspondents. Why are they so silent on this subject, in reality the most important one to the people? Do they think the only question to be taken into consideration is the effi ciency of the candidates as party tacticians?

Thomas B. Monroe, Jr., of the Lexington Statesman, has been appointed Charge to Naples. This is a highly deserved compliment.—Paris

We know nothing whatever of Mr. Monroe's fitness for the position to which, it is said, he has been appointed, but we can safely say that there are few editors who deserve more at the hands of their party than he does. A thorough going and warm partisan, he has in a short time established for himself the deserved reputation of being one of the most fluent and graceful writers in the ed itorial profession in this State. Although occa sionally somewhat ultra in his maintenance of Democratic doctrines, he has been uniformly courteous and dignified in his editorial career, rarely descending to personalities of any kind .--Our intercourse with him professionally has been courteous and friendly, and we wish him all possible success in the mission upon which he is to be

REVISING THE PLATFORM .- "If the Democratic arty has a plank in its platform on which fa naticism can stand and resist the authorities pro rided for the government of a Territory-if the loctrine of territorial self-government can en able faction to run riot over law and order, and to commit crimes of the deepest dye with imounity-in a word, if popular sovereignty is to b made a successful cloak for insurrection, rebellion and treason, it is high time that it be torn from our platform and rejected with universal scorn."—Union.

That is to say, if the Democratic Platform stands in the way, and prevents the Democratic Administration from ruling the Territories with arbitrary and despotic power, it is time to revise the Platform and strike out the clause which is ound to be a stumbling block in their way.

Having used the "squatter sovereignty" principle to secure the election of a President, that President now attemps to give an entirely dif ferent construction to it from that which the peo ple themselves placed upon it, and from its plain and obvious meaning; and when some of the leading spirits of the party come out honestly and say they cannot be parties to, or countenance any such fraud, they are at once denounced as refractory and ambitious, rebels and renegades.

MR. MORRIS' UNIVERSAL MASONIC LIBRARY. We publish in another column a catalogue of this work, and deem it worthy of especial notice to all who are interested in the subject of Free Masonry. The want of a correct and complete se ries, in substantial and cheap form, of the many valuable publications upon this theme, has been universally acknowledged. Mr. Morris, whose labors in the Masonic ranks are generally known, has compiled, and at a very serious cost, has ste reotyped and published, in a library of thirty volames, every valuable work extant which relates to any department of Free Masonry. The His cory, Jurisprudence, Philosophy, and the Belles Letters of the subject are thoroughly presented by its standard author, comprising such names as Oliver, Preston, Morris, Mackey, Hutchinson, Anderson, Calcott, Smith, Town, Harris, De Ver-ot, Creigh, Portal, and others, of equal value. The style of getting up is worthy of the subect, being bound in library form, remarkably substantial, the paper and typography of good char acter, and the whole series presenting a graceful view to the eye. The price is fixed at the moderate sum of Fifty Dollars. Every well-informed Mason throughout the whole Union should supply himself with this invaluable work, if it be possible to spare fifty dollars.

WHEELER & WILSON'S SEWING MACHINES. We have heretofore noticed this valuable "Wo man's Friend." But the following, by that talented authoress, Mrs. Stephens, so beautifully describes its utility and value that we cannot refrain from giving it a place in our columns .-Messrs. Wheeler & Ives, of Lexington, are the general agents for Kentucky, for the sale of these machines:

"During the last six months we have had in our parlor, and among its most elegant adorn ments, too, a very beautiful sewing machine from the establishment of Messrs. Wheeler & Wilson, on which it has been our ambition to be come a proficient, when this well used pen has iven us a moment's time for the needle for the life of us, we cannot get over the idea that there is some fairy-work growing under our fingers whenever we get a moment of this mos delightful occupation. To see neatly stitche seams gliding through your fingers at the rate of a yard a minute, to see a shirt made in less tim than it is necessary to cut it out—and a shir bosom covered with tiny plaits, exquisitely stitch ed, completed almost while a lady could sew our a needle full of thread, partakes absolutely of the marvellous. One feels as if performing some beautiful magic while sitting so quietly before that dainty machine, with the pedals just touched into motion by the feet, as our old-fashioned flax wheels were set in motion-and the pretty arra of spools, and silver wheels, and sharp needle performing their regular music under your fir Then the swiftness of it—the satisfaction and glory of having all your sewing done up in a few hours—of seeing your pretty rosewood case shut up, covered with bijouterie, and turned into the most charming bit of ornamental furni re—all this is making play of work, and mak ng usefulness an elegant accomplishment. Our machine now will make three dresses-no matte how heavy or how fine-in far less time than the dress-maker requires to fit one. It will hen handkerchiefs, do all sorts of fancy stitching and rival the daintiest work of the whitest fir gers with magical neatness. What the steam engine proves compared to horse-power, this beautiful machine is when set in opposition to the slow, patient progress of the ordinary needle. It only requires a little care, a drop of olive oil now and then touched to the delicate mechanism and you have the motive power of fifty seam stresses doing ornamental duty in your parlor while out of active use, eating nothing, asking nothing, and never singing the mournful 'Song of the Shirt,' stitch, stitch, stitch, This machine can be obtained at the store of Mrs. Lyons, St. Clair street, Frankfort, Ky.

McLean's Strengthening Cordial .- This rem edy has been before the public only a short time but it has proved to be an invaluable remedy to purify the blood and strengthen the system; ever one who uses it recommends it to others, until it has become the standard remedy with every famtily in the United States. We say to every reader, try it-it is a delightful aromatic. See advertisement in another column.

To the Public.

The undersigned have in course of preparation and propose to publish as early as possible, a volume which shall contain, in concise form, and conveniently arranged for reference, a synopsis of the existing laws regulating the jurisdiction and duties of the inferior judicial, and ministerial offices of the State, as prescribed by the Revised Statutes and the Civil and Criminal Codes, as well as by the laws passed subsequently thereto, including whatever changes may be made by the General Assembly now in session.

This book will contain, under appropriate heads, a condensed abstract of the laws applicable to each officer, as well as a great variety of approved forms, such as forms of Warrants, (civil and criminal,) Indictments, Presentments, Bonds, Judgments, Orders, Returns, Reports, Depositions, Sheriffs' Deeds, Petitions, &c. In short, it will contain every form necessary to be used by Presiding Judges, Justices, Sheriffs, Constables, Marshals, Assessors, Coroners, Clerks of Circuit and County Courts, Examiners. Commissioners in Chancery, other Commissioners, Surveyors, &c., in the discharge of every duty imposed by law.

This work has been undertaken after consultation with many of the most distinguished lawvers in our State. The radical changes made by the Revised Statutes and the Codes of Practice, in their opinion, render such a work necessary, in order that the various inferior judicial and ministerial officers of the State may properly dis charge their respective duties. The frequent change of officers by election, and their consequent want of familiarity with the different modes of proceeding, is an additional consideration in favor of the importance of such a book.

In the general plan and preparation of this book we have secured the assistance of the most eminent lawyers in the State, and no form will be published by us until it shall have been first approved by them, or unless we find that it has been sanctioned by judicial decisions.

HOWARD ASSOCIATION,

PHILADELPHIA,

PHILADELPHIA,

A Benevolent Institution, established by special endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afficted with Virulent and Epidemic diseases.

To all persons afflicted with Sexual Diseases, such as SPERMATORRHŒA, SEMINAL WEAKNESS, IMPOTENCE, GONORRHŒA, GLEET, SYPHILIS, the Vice of ONANISM, or SELF-ABUSE, &c., &c.

The HOWARD ASSOCIATION, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by Sexual diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by Quacks, several years ago directed their Consulting Surgeon, as a CHARITABLE ACT worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases, in all their forms, and to give MEDICAL ADVICE GRATIS, to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c...) and in cases of extreme poverty, to FURNISH MEDICINES FREE OF CHARGE. It is needless to add tha the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal, to this very important but much despised cause.
